A Sure Bet.

Missouri will go Republican this fall just as sure as the 6th of November comes. The magic spell of the "old guard" has been broken for good, and with it all kinds of graft and boodling. The people know this, and they see it. A great change for the betterment of the State has taken place and the prime condition of things will not be disturbed by any reversal of the present order now existing.—Miller Co. Autogram.

The Saloon Issue in the Legislative Canvass.

The liquor interests of this state are altogether too shrewd to make a direct issue with the people at large. The public sentiment of Missouri is against the saloon and brewery element as that element has conducted itself. And the saloon men and brewers know it. But, by underhanded methods and, in some regards, by surprisingly bold and audacious moves, they are engaging now in a canvass to control the next General Assembly.

The people themselves ought to force the issue the saloon influence is seeking to avoid. They should not let it be kept in the background. They should nominate in both parties men who are really right on the questions affecting the relations of the brewers to the public—not "right" from the brewers' standpoint, but right in fact and with regard to the people's interests.

No other public question is comparable to that of law enforcement. In this state the principle of law enforcement is chiefly assailed by the liquor element and some "interests" that ally themselves with it. Only under compulsion have the saloons obeyed the Sunday closing statute. They have persistently sought to evade it. Unable to defy it, they seek to smother it by confounding in the minds of legislators the unnecessary evil of the Sunday liquor trade with certain salutary pursuits that are as necessary on Sunday as on any other day. Although conducting a business that puts a great share of the criminal and police costs on the state, they would dodge a reasonable license fee and would control the Legislature to defeat Governor Folk's plan to increase their license charges for the establishment of a good roads fund.

The voters of every legislative district in the state should see to it that their neglect does not contribute to defeat a square deal between the people and the saloons.—Kansas City Times.

Out of the Mouths of Babes.

Teacher: Tommy, is a donkey a biped or a quadruped?

Tommy: Please m'am, it depends on whether the donkey is a man or a beast.

Grandmother (severely): Johnny, you must not play on the stairs.

Johnny: Well, papa sent me upstairs and mamma sent me down, so what am I to do?

Little Margie, who was the guest of her grandparents, had eaten a hearty dinner when a second dish of pudding was offered her. Looking longingly at the dish she sighed: "Oh, dear, I do wish I was twins!"

"Why, Elmer," said the Sunday-school teacher, "I am surprised to hear you and that strange boy swearing at each other. What do you mean by such conduct?"

"Well, he started it," explained Elmer. "He jumped all over me cause I'm a Methodist instead of a Presbyterian like he is."

We place at the masthead the Republican State, Congressional, Senatorial and County tickets, and will carry them there until the victor's wreath rests on each on Nov. 6th. They belong to the party that does things, they are all good men and true, and with a full vote they will make a clean sweep.

At a bacon barbecue given by the Jefferson City Commercial Club at Linder's Park last Thursday, a movement was started for a 5-million-dollar capitol building at Jefferson City. The state certainly needs a new capitol building, and by keeping Missouri Republican it will be possible to pay for it out of the surplus.

To Our Subscribers.

We must open a new subscription book, but we want to first clean up the old one. Mistakes may have been made in crediting subscriptions, and we ask every subscriber to notice date on paper, and if you hold receipt to a later date let us know that it may be corrected, as we want to start out with a clean list, and would like to have every one paid up. If in arrears you can see just how you stand by the date on your paper, and your remittance to cover same will be gladly credited, and no kick will be made if you remit for a year in advance. Please attend to this matter now.

Missouri is getting ready to make ample apology to the national democracy in particular and the country in general for that political mistake two years ago.—Bryan's Commoner.

Yes, by going Republican again, with an increased majority.

Poor Show for a Tannery.

The ticket nominated by the Democrats of Morgan county is right now marching through a slaughter house to an open grave. The same is also true of the Monticau county Democratic ticket. When the party of progress and prosperity gets through with them, there won't be enough hide left, if properly tanned, to half-sole a "kid's" pair of shoes.—Miller Co. Autogram.

A Record to be Proud Of.

The Republican officials of this State have made a record in their respective offices that will not be forgotten by the average voter. These men have not interfered in proposed legislation; boodling, grafting and the "shaking down" of corporations has ceased since these men went into office; a new school fund which is an income, instead of a tax upon the people has been established. In fact, the course of the present officials is indorsed by the leading politicians of both parties, and to their splendid work for the masses of the people of the State, regardless of party affiliations, will have much to do with keeping Missouri in the Republican column for years to come.—Miller County Autogram.

Democratic Endorsement For Judge Neville.

"If, as some of them profess to believe, the Republicans are to sweep the platter clean and capture every office in the State, then we are glad Judge James T. Neville is a candidate for the supreme bench. He is one of the genial and best equipped men for the place in the state. If we are to have a Republican, by all means let it be Judge Neville.

The above from the Springfield Leader, the Democratic organ of Greene county, will be endorsed by a large number of the Democrats of Southwest Missouri Nov. 6th. Judge Neville is a sure winner.

Favorable Comment.

Republican State Committee.

St. Louis, Mo., August 25, '06.

Dear Mr Kinloch:

You are certainly to be congratulated for what you are doing in a newspaper way to assist the Republican party.

It is very gratifying to this committee to note that you have purchased a Democratic paper and turned it into a Republican paper. We wish you well deserved success and feel assured that your efforts in Morgan county are going to bring forth good results.

Any time you are in the city please call at headquarters.

Cordially yours,

THOS. E. NIEDRINGHAUS,
Chairman.

H. F. Tillman, publisher of the Morgan County Democrat, has sold that paper to W. W. Kinloch of Ozark, Mo. Mr. Kinloch took charge at once and will publish the paper hereafter as a Republican journal. Mr. Kinloch is an old newspaper man, having edited a paper twenty-two years. His last work of this kind was as editor of the Ozark Republican. While the new paper comes in competition with the Statesman in a business way it is with us politically, and we always throw up our hat to him whose guns are pointed in the same general direction as ours.—Statesman.

All right, Bro. Baker, may we always be found touching elbows on the firing line in every political fight, and when it comes to a scramble after the almighty dollar may we each secure enough of them to keep Sheriff Willson from interfering with our business.

DEMOCRAT CHANGES HANDS.

H. F. Tillman last Monday sold the Morgan County Democrat—the printing plant, fixtures, subscription and good will—to W. W. Kinloch of Ozark, Christian county, Mo. The new proprietor at once assumed charge, and having changed its politics will this week issue the paper under the title of Morgan County Republican. Mr. Kinloch has been engaged in newspaper work for twenty-three years, having recently disposed of his newspaper, the Republican, published at Ozark. He is an affable and business like gentleman, and comes well recommended. The Leader extends a cordial welcome to Mr. Kinloch and his family, whom he will move here in a few weeks.

Mr. Tillman, the retiring publisher, has made many friends during his few years residence here, and the wish is that with his family he may conclude to remain with us. He is an all round newspaper man, a courteous gentleman and a valuable citizen. The Leader's best wishes will accompany him wherever he may cast his lot.—Versailles Leader.

PAPER CHANGES.

We notice that W. W. Kinloch formerly of the Ozark Republican, has purchased the Morgan County Democrat. We have known Mr. Kinloch for a number of years and can recommend him, not only as a good newspaper man, but as a good man in every sense, barring his politics. We wish him success every way except politically.—Otterville Mail.

PAPER CHANGES HANDS

Editor H. F. Tillman of the Morgan County Democrat has this week sold his newspaper interests at Versailles, to W. W. Kinloch, of Ozark, Mo. Mr. Kinloch, formerly editor of the Christian County Republican, has had twenty-two years actual newspaper experience, and will no doubt have a glowing success from the beginning. Politically, the paper will be changed, from Democratic to Republican, and also the name of the paper will be changed, the intended name being the Morgan County Republican.

Mr. Kinloch comes to this county not only recommended as an excellent newspaper man, but also as a good citizen. He has a family of a wife and four daughters, who will, with the editor, become residents of Versailles.

Mr. Tillman, the retiring owner, will, for awhile at least, number one among the Republican force. Under the management of Editor Tillman the Democrat was ever-to-date and ideal newspaper, giving good service to its patrons in every sense. And now that we will miss Mr. Tillman from the ranks, we feel that he is replaced by a man thoroughly competent and reliable.

The Enterprise extends a royal welcome to Mr. Kinloch in the field of journalism of Morgan County.—Barnett Enterprise.

More than half of mankind over sixty years of age suffer from kidney and bladder disorders, usually enlargement of prostate glands.
